CJAJC Confers; Program Chosen For Journalists

A partial agreement was reached between four-year colleges and junior colleges concerning the transferable junior college journalism courses during the meeting of the California Intercollegiate Press association and the California Journalism Association for Junior Colleges at Fresno last week end.

This agreement will require considerable revision in the journalism program at Hartnell and other junior colleges. Some of the required material is already being taught, but some courses must be added, according to Mr. George Abbott, journalism instructor.

Representatives of Stanford university and San Jose State college stated that among the objections of the four-year colleges were students attempting to transfer too many units of journalism, students who have confined their journalism training to working on the college newspaper, and failure of some colleges to use textbooks in their journalism courses.

Junior colleges are now working towards acceptance of 12 units of transferable journalism credits by the four-year institutions.

The conference in Fresno highlighted three speakers: Max Roby, CBS news analyst; Dick Bibler, creator of cartoon, "Little Man on the Campus," and Robert C. Eunsen, chief of bureau, Associated Press, San Francisco. There were also speakers in various fields such as news coverage, yearbook layout, editorial policy and sports coverage.

There were various writing and photography contests.

Hartnell students who attended were Lynne Garcia, Nancy Suurballe, Ralph Winter and Jack Sandy. They were accompanied by Mr. Abbott.

Five Hartnell Students To Attend Conference

A World Foreign conference will be held at the University of California March 15-19, according to Darold Coelho, International club president.

Representatives from Hartnell will be Eduardo Esperante, Laurie Parsh, Diana Chin, Berton Bower and Stewart Liem.

The purpose of the conference is to have a better understanding and unity among the foreign students in this country.

UC Plans Open House For School of Nursing

Helen Nahm, dean of the University of California school of nursing, extends an invitation to counselors and groups of students interested in nursing to visit their medical campus and school of nursing during an open house April 26 or May 3.

Students interested should contact Miss June Handley, dean of women, for further information.

Singers Going to Los Angeles

Today Is Last Day To File Applications

Today is the last day to file applications with California State civil service, for examinations for summer or permanent employment as engineering aides.

The examination will be given on March 29. Students should secure an application blank from the Hartnell placement office. The full details of the examination are on the job bulletin board.

It is required that a student have 70 per cent score on the written examination. The student must have a knowledge of elementary principles of algebra, geometry, trigonometry and surveying. He must have the ability to do simple drafting, to make accurate engineering computations, and to make simple inspections of engineering construction projects.

During the dance, the veterans will reveal their secret pin-up girl.

Admission to the dance is free to women and 50 cents for non-member men. Members of the Veterans club will be charged 35 cents.

San Jose Five Whips Conference Cage Stars

Hartnell representatives contributed 16 points Tuesday night as the San Jose Jaguars, Coast conference basketball champions, defeated the league all-star team, 93-86, at San Jose. The proceeds will be used to send the winners to the state junior college tournament in Bakersfield.

Ron Wyrsh of San Jose led the scoring with 25 points. Bill McClintock of Monterey made 21 points, Hartnell's Jim Mastin scored seven and Phil Netto tallied nine.

Diapers Required By Campus Scientists

"Oh, they are for the bacteriology students," answered Mr. James Wilson recently when a curious fellow faculty member spotted the Hartnell teacher carrying an armful of diapers.

It seems the three-cornered trousers are used for drying slides and other glassware in the bacteriology classes.

Hartnell Vocalists to Sing At Los Angeles Meeting

Five Hartnell college students who have been chosen to represent Hartnell in the junior college choir at the music educators' national conference in Los Angeles will leave Salinas March 21 to attend the event.

The students, Claude Ponting, Staten Johnston, Judy Masson and Nancy Fant, all of Salinas, and Carol Ann Stewart, King City, will perform March 24 at 8:30 p.m. in the Los Angeles Philharmonic auditorium. The choir consists of approximately 200 students from California, Utah, Arizona and Nevada.

Three well-known high school voice instructors of Monterey county, Esther Ingham, Salinas; Ralph Kent, Watsonville, and Lester Wiegand, Gonzales, chose the singers on the basis of range of voice, accuracy of voice and knowledge of the material to be sung.

Program Announced

The group will sing two numbers, "Mass in G," by Schubert, and "Te Deum," by Kodaly, a contemporary Hungarian composer. Each number, consisting of 30 to 40 pages, will be sung in Latin, and the group will be accompanied by the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra. Robert Zimmerman, director of the Portland, Ore., symphonic choir, will direct the junior college chorus.

While in Los Angeles, the students will follow a rigorous practice schedule. They will practice at least 16 hours, and more rehearsal time will be scheduled if needed, according to Mr. Vahe Aslanian.

Mr. Aslanian, Hartnell college voice instructor and president of the northern California Music Educators' national association, has had the Hartnell students practicing one night a week since the beginning of February in order to have them as proficient as possible.

5 Women Named WAA Delegates

Kay Bourgerie, Susan Cassidy, Diane Hayes, Ethel Boutte and Donna Merlotti have been chosen from the Women's Athletic association to represent Hartnell college at the Asilomar conference on March 21-23.

Hartnell is on the planning committee to make arrangements for the 31 colleges which will be sending 143 delegates to the annual physical education conference.

The conference is held annually to discuss the problems of the colleges and to give more and better ideas for the improvement of WAA, according to Miss Bourgerie.

Former Teacher Now Co-publisher

David L. Stidolph, Hartnell college journalism instructor and public relations director during the 1953-54 and 1954-55 college years, is the co-publisher of a new book entitled, "Beginner's Book of Fishing."

Stidolph, now in the publicity business in Salinas, wrote chapters on rods and reels, sportsmanship, spin fishing, boats, and string and hook. John McCallum of New York, a former assistant sports editor of NEA, wrote the other chapters.

The book will be off the press in May, and in the book stores by September.

Skiers' Car Wash Set for March 22; Trip Is Planned

Hartnell's Ski club will wash cars March 22 at the two Mobile gas stations on Main street.

Money from the car wash will aid the club in a free all-ski week end at Yosemite in April. Members eligible for the free trip are those who work on the car wash or attend the all-ski week end this week.

Approximately 15 Ski club members leave early tomorrow morning for Yosemite. Private cars will be taken and lodging will be at "Ma" Mayes' in the valley. Mr. Lorenz Newton, faculty advisor, will accompany the group.

There are eight vacancies in the men's dormitory at 123 Central avenue, according to Mr. George Abbott, teacher in charge.

The rent is $20 a month, and includes a room and the use of a television set. Interested men students should see Mr. Abbott in room 9.

Frosh Pictures Set

Freshman group pictures for the yearbook will be taken from 9 a.m. to noon Wednesday in the student lounge, according to Jack Sandy, editor. Freshmen are asked to follow the order listed in next week's administrative bulletin. It is hoped the freshmen will turn out in larger numbers than the sophomores.

Editorials

Editor Cites Problems

Seems as though there was a little discussion in last week's editorial about the men's lounge. Seems also as if this same fact mentioned last week was aired in the commission a couple of weeks ago.

ROLL OUT THE WAGON

The Hartnell station wagon is shot! We ought to try to keep up with colleges like MPC. They have a 1958 Mercury station wagon.

YEARBOOKS ON SALE

You have until March 28 to purchase your La Reata. Everyone should have one. Who knows, someday you might want to show your grandchildren or your spouse whom you could have married and where would you be with a yearbook, especially one that costs one tiny dollar

PANTHERS MEET ALUMNI

Hartnell's first baseball game is tomorrow on the Hartnell diamond. Let's all get out and support our team as the Panthers squelch the alumni. Perhaps a little school spirit (which is so shallow around here) might be put out to push our boys one.

Buck Up!
Life's O.K.

By DEMETRIA DA-ATON

A very nervous young man came in with a girl to get a marriage license, and the clerk, taking down the data, murmured: "Parents' consent?"

"Parents' consents!" he said. "Who do you think that is in the door with a shotgun, Daniel Boone?"

David Freedman, a very well-known humor writer, defined jokes as a philosophy invented by people who are vicious without laughing and call it humor. Humor has nothing to do with being mean, or not being mean. If a lion laughs he will still eat you. If he's a skunk, it doesn't matter whether he laughs or cries, he smells just as bad."

Ode to a Redskin

"The painted Indian rides no more,

He stands at a tobacco store.
His cruel face proclaims afar

The terror of the cheap cigar."

Some clubs on this campus are not really cooperating with the Sentinel reporters at all. So, just a reminder to all the clubs' publicity chairmen: Would you mind cooperating with us? After all, reporting is not an easy job, you know.

O'Brien Art Store
Features Amyx Works

Mr. Leon Amyx, Hartnell college art instructor, has sent three of his watercolors to Scottsdale, Ariz., for showing in the O'Brien art emporium.

The management of the gallery saw some Amyx paintings in Carmel and made arrangements for a permanent supply. According to Mr. Amyx, his paintings attracted special interest because the subjects are different from those usually shown in the southwest.

Coed Softball Teams
Now Being Formed

Intramural softball comprising six men and five women students on each team is in the process of being formed. More detailed information will be announced as soon as formation is completed, according to Mr. Jess Regli, physical education instructor.

Net Ladder Started

A Womens Athletic Association ladder for this year has been started under Donna Ponting, chairman, according to Kay Bourgerie.

The top six players chosen during the finals will attend the Modesto playday this spring.

Flying Club Sees
Film on Training
At Recent Session

A training film was shown at the recent meeting of the Flying club.

The club has not been too active these past few months because of the bad weather, but will soon begin cross-country flights. Members who have student licenses fly under the direction of an instructor.

Students must have 2 hours of solo flying to be eligible for their private license, and he must fly every 90 days so that he will not lose his license.

Los Angeles college

Today's column is directed at those young female undergraduates who have recently pledged sororities and are worried, poor lambs, that they won't make good. Following is a list of simple instructions which, if faithfully observed, will positively guarantee that you will be a mad success as a sorority girl.

First, let us take up the matter of housemothers. The housemother is your friend, your guide, your mentor. You must treat her with respect. When you wish to speak to her, address her as "Mother Sigafos" or "Ma'am." Under no circumstances must you say, "Hey, fat lady."

Second, let us discuss laundry. Never hang your wash on the front porch of the sorority house. This is unsightly and shows a want of breeding. Use the chapter room.

Third, meals. Always remember that planning and preparing meals for a houseful of healthy girls is no simple task. Your cook goes to a great deal of trouble to make your menu varied and nourishing. The least you can do is show your appreciation. Don't just devour your food; praise it. Exclaim with delight: "What scrumptious fish heads!" or "What delicious pork jowls!" or "What a yummy soupbone!"

Fourth, clothing. Never forget that your appearance reflects not just on yourself but on the whole house. You must take great pains to dress in a manner so as to excite admiring comments from all who observe you.

For example, Camille Atatürk at the University of Iowa hit upon the idea of suiting her garb to the class she was attending. For instance, to English Lit she wore a buskin and jerkin. To German she wore lederhosen and carried a stein of pilsener. To Economics she wore 120 yards of ticker tape.

Her shiningest hour came one day when she dressed as a white mouse for psychology laboratory. Not only her Chi Omega sisters, but the entire student body went into deep mourning when she was killed by the janitor's cat.

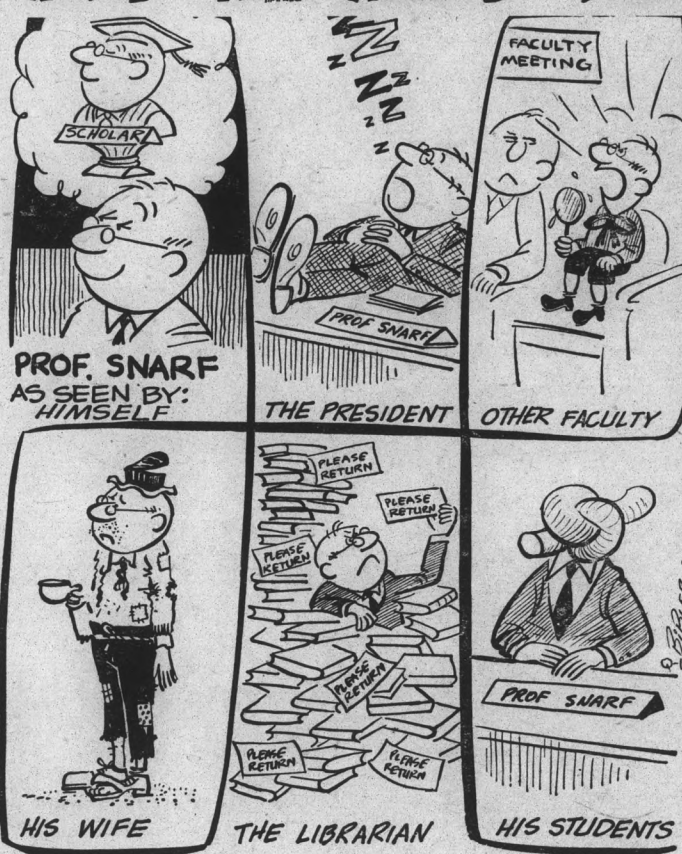

Finally, let us take up the most important topic of all. I refer, of course, to dating.

Be absolutely certain that your date is an acceptable fellow. Don't beat about the bush; ask him point-blank, "Are you an acceptable fellow?" Unless he replies, "Yeah, hey," send him packing.

But don't just take his word that he is acceptable. Inspect him closely. Is his black leather jacket freshly oiled? Is his ukulele in tune? And, most significant of all, do his cigarettes offer a "lot to like?"

If he smokes that certain brand, you know he's a lot of man. Ask him why he smokes that preferred brand. If he says he likes the brown paper, you have found the perfect companion for a perfect sorority girl.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS BY BIBLER

Jazz Club Plans

Date Changed

Date for the Hartnell college-community playhouse television production, "The Dancers," has been changed from March 16 to March 23, according to Mr. Hal Ulrici, director.

The play will be presented on KSBW-TV from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

International Club
Plans Barbecue

The annual International club barbecue will be held at Big Sur after Easter vacation, according to Darold Coelho, president.

Members of the committee are Pete Oliverez, Laurietta Parsh and Joan Blacklock.

Zermeno Names
Committee

Alex Zermeno, student body president, recently appointed a three-student committee to look into the advisability of replacing Hartnell's station wagon.

Comprising Paul Cahill as chairman with Jack Sandy and Kay Bourgerie as members, the committee is to report back its findings Monday.

Committee Discusses Accounting Practices

A discussion of accounting procedures of the student store was the purpose of the committee meeting held last Friday.

The meetings are held on the third Friday of each month, and the members discuss new items of purchases for the student store. They also hear the grievances and complaints of students.

Unusual Pictures
Of Many Animals
Found in Library

By

MISS CATHERINE CARPENTER

Many engaging glimpses of the animal life that may be found in backyards and in more distant fields and forests have appeared in natural history books.

The library has several books by Edwin Way Teale, who is one of the best writers on this subject. His "Autumn Across America" is an interesting travel book with vivid descriptions of birds, animals, trees and flowers as seen in the autumn. Insect wonders to be found in lawns and gardens are the subjects of amazing photographs and accompanying text in Teale's "Grassroot Jungles."

"Meeting the Mammals," by Victor Clahane, has excellent drawings on everything from a tiny white-footed mouse to a buffalo, accompanied by concise information on each animal illustrated.

Two unusual books by naturalists are "The Great Chain of Life" Joseph Krutch and "Theodore's Roosevelt's America." Krutch looks lovingly and wonderingly at the living world around him, and he tells how scientists have tried to analyze this world. The selections in "Theodore Roosevelt's America" demonstrate his life-long enthusiasms for nature study. He tells of hunting a grizzly bear that nearly ended a presidential career and relates many other exciting stories.

Cake Sale Planned

A cake sale was sponsored by the Art club Wednesday, to raise a $100 scholarship fund for the most outstanding art student graduating in June, according to Mr. Joseph Bragdon, club's advisor.

Snake Charmer

■ Max Morris, 9-year-old Roosevelt school student, displays his love for snakes for W. J. Robinson, Hartnell science teacher.

Termites Presented To Science Instructor

"What's in the jar, sonny?" a Hartnell college teacher asked a small boy. "Termites," replied Max Morris, 9-year-old fourth grade pupil at Roosevelt school.

Max, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Morris of 243 Central avenue, is one of about a dozen youngsters who visit the natural science laboratory of W. J. Robinson, Hartnell natural science instructor, each week.

The next afternoon, Max was back again. This time his contributions were a Jerusalem cricket and some salamanders which he found under rocks in his back yard.

Interested in Farming

The little fellow says he wants to study science and farming. He says he tries to get science books at the library and has a few at home.

Asked to name the current science unit in school, he answered, "Bones, birds and mammals." He said he likes science, but added, "I like to do it on my own. In school all you do is read books."

Most adults, and probably a good many teachers, would just as soon go the other way if there were any snakes in the neighborhood. The snake shortage is Max's chief lament: "I try to get snakes, but I never can find any."

Snakes seem to be the main attractions for the visitors from Sacred Heart and Roosevelt schools. Youngest visitor recently was Bobby Phillips, 7½, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Dayton Phillips. He likes snakes and says he's been visiting the lab for about a year. Bobby was accompanied by his brother Tommy, 9½, and James Donahue, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donahue.

Harts Routed By MPC Five

The Panther hoopsters suffered their second successive Lobo defeat this season by a 78-53 score Saturday to wind up with a 2-8 league mark and an over-all 13-15 season record.

The winner's Bill McClintock scored 25 points to take the game scoring honors. Jim Mastin led with 22 points for Hartnell. Teammate Phil Netto scored 10 points, with Bob Flores, Don Bush, Frank Padilla, Norm Steinbach, Ron Leonti and Monte Andrus rounding out Hartnell's scoring.

Gym Gems Sparkle In Intramural League

The Gym Gems and Sweat Sox quintets occupy one-two-three spots with 11-1, 8-2-1 and 8-4 records in the seven-team intramural basketball.

The Tinklers are in fourth place with 5-5-1 slate. With identical 3-9 mark, the Braves and the Scronge hoopsters are tied in fifth position. A 2-9 record puts the Black Hawk cagers in the cellar.

Dramatists In Tenth Season; Mr. Ulrici Recalls Top Students

By SANTIAGO FLORES

With 48 major plays in its accomplishments, Hartnell's drama department is in its tenth production season this year under the supervision of Mr. Harold Ulrici, drama instructor.

Before coming to Hartnell, Mr. Ulrici instructed drama at Dinuba high school for two years and at Salinas Union high school for eight years. He was graduated from the College of Pacific where he received his bachelor's degree in 1937 and his master's degree in 1938.

As Hartnell faculty member, he instructs interpretative speech art, voice and diction, theory and principles of acting, principles of make-up, scene design and construction, and stage and television production. The scene design class plans and constructs and paints all the sets used in major productions, according to Mr. Ulrici.

Department May Grow

He expresses hope that the drama department staff will eventually be increased to two members so additional courses such as drama appreciation, advanced principles in makeup, directing and costuming construction may be offered.

When Mr. Ulrici came to Hartnell in 1948, all college-produced plays were portrayed only by students. In 1953, he introduced the college-community theater whereby students as well as adult members of the community could be included in dramatic productions . . . "in order to give our audiences a greater maturity in roles and, consequently, finer productions," he reasoned. Thence, the college dramatic organization assumed the name "college-community players."

"In our last television production (The Case of Humanity vs. Pontius Pilate), we had actors in the cast from as far south as San Ardo to as far north as Aptos . . . we averaged about half community actors and half college actors," he concluded.

TV Work Increased

Because of increased work in the television field, the organization changed its name last year to "college-community playhouse."

The college's Delta Psi Omega, an honor society affiliated with more than 200 such organizations throughout the nation, is open to those doing outstanding work in dramatic activity, according to Mr. Ulrici.

Among many of the department's past accomplishments, Mr. Ulrici named the Grecian tragedy, "Medea," the great Chinese tragedy, "Lute Song," "Angel Street," "Macbeth," "Enchanted Cottage," "The Robe" and Charles Dickens' "Scrooge" as some of the outstanding plays.

Top Students Listed

To name only a few of his outstanding students, Mr. Ulrici recalled Don Lo Presti, Mountain View high school's English drama instructor; Tom Rogers, recently

San Jose State's graduated drama and speech instructor, and Mrs. Edward Brinkman (Helen Wolber), San Jose city schools' speech correction instructor.

Others mentioned were Fred Olson, San Francisco State's actor and scene designer; Mrs. William Gibbs (Gloria Rust), KNTV's announcer; William Nye, Reedley junior college's drama director; Bill Strom, former College of Pacific technical director now on Broadway; Jeanette Gudgel, San Francisco State's actress and costume designer, and James Clark, Broadway actor and stage manager.

Basketball Farce Amuses Assembly For Lobo Contest

By NANCY SUURBALLE

The Rat Pack vs. Girl Scouts "basketball game" highlighted the rally last Friday. The Girl Scouts overpowered their weaker opponents with a score of 6 to 4.

The Rat Pack was guilty of committing various fouls which lowered its chances of winning. Playing on the winning team were Verna Lipska, Ramona Insular, Verlie Reif, Rosalee Reyes, Becky Sadler and Ethel Boutte.

On the losing team were Ron Leonti, Ron Ross, Bobby Flores, "Tabby," Don Bush and Frank Padilla. The varsity basketball performers played with one arm behind them.

Classical Music Featured

Another feature of the rally, on the more classical side, was the violin solo by George Andrade. He was accompanied in his debut by Terrie LaMacchia.

Gary Harris and Virgil Hoadley were the masters of ceremonies and Hoadley informed the students of the blood drive. Mr. Ed Adams discussed the Hartnell-MPC game.

Sandra Epperson announced that the La Reatas would go on sale after the rally and that the sale would end on March 28.

The rally concluded with the announcement of the two students who acted as "Tabby" for the football and basketball seasons. They were Claude Ponting and Birk Triplett.

Mr. Peavy Announces Ten Tennis Contests

A ten-match tentative schedule for Hartnell's six-man varsity tennis team was announced Monday by Coach G. Darwin Peavy.

The team includes Thomas Gomez, Stewart Liem, Larry Smith, Charles Grim, Edmund Lee and Ralph Winter.

The schedule is as follows: March 14, Coalinga, here; March 15, Vallejo, here; March 22, Menlo, here; March 29, at Vallejo; April 8, at San Jose; April 12, San Jose, here; April 14, Monterey, here; April 19, at Monterey; April 21, East Contra Costa, here and April 26, at East Contra Costa.

Cabanyog Enlists In Marine Group

Bob Cabanyog, 19-year-old Hartnell college freshman, has been sworn into the marine corps platoon leaders class by Major L. L. Bjarnason, Hartnell college English instructor and marine reserve recruiting officer.

The new marine is the son of Pete Garcia of Salinas. He was graduated from Salinas Union high school in 1956 and served in the army reserve training program before enrolling at Hartnell.

Cabanyog was a star athletic performer in high school and played first string halfback for Hartnell last fall. He scored three touchdowns and kicked three extra points. The stocky speedster learned all the backfield positions, starting as a fullback. A shoulder injury caused him to miss a couple of games early in the campaign.

Under the officer procurement program, Cabanyog will attend two six-week summer sessions at Quantico, Va. marine base. Upon graduation from a four-year college he will receive his commission as a second lieutenant.

Coach Ken Blue praised Cabanyog as a fine team player who should have a good season with the Panthers next fall. Blue feels the physical contact and conditioning, plus the working with other fellows, will help Cabanyog become a successful marine officer.

Hoopmen Share Cellar With Vallejo Quintet

The Hartnell Panthers and the Vallejo Falcon quintets wound up their Coast conference cage seasons with identical 2-8 records to share the cellar positions.

The San Jose Jaguars took first place with an 8-2 slate, while in second position, the East Contra Costa Vikings had a 7-3 mark. A 6-4 slate put the Monterey Lobos in third spot, and an even 5-5 record found the Menlo Oaks five in fourth position.

Mastin Runnerup In League Scoring

Hartnell's Jim Mastin finished three points behind the Coast conference scoring leader during the recently concluded basketball season, according to the San Francisco Examiner.

Mastin's 201-point total was surpassed only by the 204 points scored by Bill McClintock of Monterey Peninsula college. Nick Clock of the champion San Jose quintet finished in third place. Mastin's league average was 20.1 points per game.

Hartnell statistician, Bob Stolich, reported Mastin scored 558 points over-all for the season for an average of 19.9 points in 28 games. The Harts won 13 and lost 15.

Other season scoring totals for Hartnell follow: Bob Flores, 215; Phil Netto, 171; Don Bush, 145; Frank Padilla, 126; Ron Ross, 121; Norm Steinbach, 70; Ron Leonti, 20, and Monty Andrus, 10.

Daughters Seeks Post

Dr. Bard Daughters has announced he will seek election to the college board of trustees in the May 20 election. He was appointed to the board in October.

WAYNE UMBERTIS • SPORTS EDITOR

Sport Slants

By WAYNE UMBERTIS

The recent change of address by the most sought after prep basketball star in the country, has collegiate authorities wondering. Billy (the hill) McGill, the seven-foot sensation from Jefferson of Los Angeles, recently dropped out of school in L.A. to enroll at Poly high school in San Francisco. He moved without his parents and is now living with a friend in the city.

Billy has decided to enroll at the University of San Francisco next semester, and college coaches all over are complaining about recruiting tactics. The USF Dons, national champions a year ago and fourth nationally last year, seem to be getting all the plums in California prep circles.

McGill will certainly throw a bright light on the Dons future, but a thorough investigation is bound to delve into this unusual move.

Dons On Hot Seat

Look for USF to be on the question block for the next few months; they will have some questions to answer.

Hartnell skiers head off on another trip this weekend to the race slopes of Yosemite.

Probably the most active club on campus, it furnishes a fine trip at reasonable rates. It is a good way to meet new friends and have a good time at cut-rate prices.

A hustling Monterey quintet made Hartnell fans want to forget about the round ball sport in a hurry. MPC battered the Panthers last Saturday to add the final touch to one of the Harts most dismal basketball seasons. Besides finishing last in the league, they were beaten for the first time in history by MPC, not once but twice.

However two Panthers played for the league all-stars when they hosted champion San Jose. The two were high-scoring Jim Mastin and Phil Netto.

Seven Ex-gridders Find New Horizons

Seven Hartnell gridders have entered four-year colleges, the service or are working full-time, according to Coach Ken Blue.

The gridmen include Al Machado, Jim Zachary, Dick Rohrke, Ron Critchfield, Tom Monnelly, Ruben Lopez and John Plake.

Machado returned to work on the family farm near San Jose. Zachary is lost to the Army, while Rohrke has transferred to Fresno State. Critchfield is headed for Oregon State, and Monnelly is working full-time.

Lopez and Plake are now students at San Benito junior college.

16 Games Slated For Golf Team

A 16-game slate for the Hartnell varsity golfers was released Tuesday by Coach Ken Blue.

The golf players are Daniel Hura, Dick Smith, Ron Leonti, Gary Solestro, Dan Davey, Albert Harris, Julian Aguilar, Charles Skow, Jack Wilkinson and John Ables.

The schedule includes March 14, San Jose Frosh, there; March 24, East Contra Costa, here; March 28, East Contra Costa, here; March 28, East Contra Costa, there; April 7, San Jose JC, there; April 10, San Jose JC, here; April 14, MPC, here; April 17, MPC, there; April 23, 24, 25, Santa Cruz intercollegiate, there; April 29, Menlo, here; May 2, Menlo, there; May 5, Vallejo, here; May 9, Vallejo, there; May 12, Conference match, East Contra Costa, and May 19, San Jose State, there.

Baseballers To Open Season Tomorrow Against Alumni Nine

By WAYNE UMBERTIS

Coach Jess Regli's baseballers will open their season at 2 p.m. tomorrow when they face the alumni on the Hartnell diamond. The Panthers feature a good first line but are short in reserve depth. With only three possible pitchers and two of these starters at other positions, the mound staff will have its hands full.

Bob Beretta is scheduled to open on the hill for the Harts tomorrow, with Bill Beretta and Navor Lopez finishing up. Lopez should develop into the number one hurler, but will also be one of the best infielders.

Coach Regli is depending on the stickwork of Lopez, Ken Blanton and Frank Felice to pace the team.
